

As a truck driver I depend more on satellite radio's constant and more up to date weather and traffic. Local radio stations dont have the details that are useful. I can also arrange my route according to the traffic and or weather that is up ahead of me..